SHORTER CREED SUGGESTED TO THE NEW YORK PRESETTERY.

attee Reports in Favor of Taking the Damastion of Infants and of All the Beatlen Out of the Westminster Con-fession so Far as They Are in it, The committee appointed to report on re eision of the Westminster Confession presented the result of its labora to the New York Presbriery in the lecture room of the Scotch Church West Fourteenth street, yesterday. The report, which was read by the Rev. Dr. Hastises of the Union Theological Seminary, said,

We have reached a conclusion with a unanimity for which we are devoutly thankful. This manimity for which we are devoutly thankful. This manimity re-mited from concessions which were made in a most ex-cellent spirit, after a full and free presentation of our different personal views.

Your committee feel that it is necessary to reduce to the minimum the changes which different minds may desira and to units in asking only such modifications as are necessary to remove from our confession those patements which have proved to be stumbling blocks statements which have proven to be stampling blooks to many honest believers.

Other changes, in the judgment of the majority of the estimittee would be improvements, but we prefer to have them to the wisdom of the General Assembly. Ther submit as an answer to the General Asembly's overture:

This Presbytery would regard with apprehension any stempts to remodel the Confession of Faith as endangering the integrity of our system of doctrine. We deprecate most carnestly all such changes as would we deprecate most carnesity all such changes as would impair the essential articles of our faith contained in that confession, which has so long served as our standard, and to which was are bound by so many historical and personnel was device only such changes as seen to in surjectly needen and generally asked. HE CIRCULATED THE WORLD,

Andrew Feller Pleads Guilty of Criminal

On May 2, 1888, the World published an article stating that Andrew Feller's daughter Maggie had "been very wicked, not through her own fault, it is said, but through the teachings of an aunt who taught her to steal, and thereby caused a separation between husband and wife." The article went on to say that the aunt was Mrs. George Bechman, and that Feller had sued her for $5,000 damages.

Mrs. Bechman owns several tenement houses. and lives at 301 East beventieth street. Feller elipped the article from a number of copies of ants. One of the tenants wrote to him asking it the article was true, and he wrote to her a long letter reiterating the statements. Feller pleaded guilty in the General Sessions resterday of criminally libelling Mrs. Bech-

Feller pleaded guilty in the General Seasions yesterday of criminally libelling Mrs. Bechhan.

"You have been guilty of a shameful offence." Becorder Smythe told him. "In many cases, persons of the respectability of Mrs. Bechiman and her husband might not have acted as wisely and properly as they did. Many a man in this city, into whose home such a shameful libel was introduced, under the same circumstances and with such evident malice, would have taken the lawinto his own hands. The sort of thing that you did cannot be tolerated in any country or community. I had intended to fine or imprison you, but I learn that you are without money, and that if you should be imprisoned your four young children would suffer more than you would. Therefore I have determined to suspend sentence. But let me termined to suspond sentence. But let me warn you that if you repeat this offence, or in any war annoy Mr. and Mis. Bechman, I shall send for you and impose the suspended sentence to the full extent of the law."

DIFORCE CARRS TRIED OPENLY. Judge Ingraham's Court Bevoted Nearly

All the Day to Them. In Supreme Court, Special Term, yesterday, a good part of Judge Ingraham's time was taken up in hearing divorce cases. The court room was well filled during the day with women who were accused of wrong doing, or who alleged that their husbands were gulity, The testimony was mostly unprintable. In all the cases decision was reserved. Mrs. Sarah Payne asked for an absolute divorce from Irving L. Payne, whom she joined in a runsway marriage in October, 1881. Payne deserted her in March, 1882. His mother and sister testified that he had married again, and was living in Stanton, Va.

Edwin E. Farley sued for divorce from Frances Farley, whose present residence is said to be 110 West Twenty-third street. The testimony showed that three men called upon a friend named Goodwin on May 16, 1885, and a friend named Goodwin on May 16, 1885, and found in his room a young woman, who was introduced as Mrs. Goodwin. Two of the men recognized her as a previous acquaintance whom they had met as Mrs. Farley. She asked them "not to tell Ed."

Virginia L. O'Sullivan sned her husband, Jeremiah J. O'Sullivan, who is in business at 49 Chambers street. The offence charged against Mr. O'Sullivan was that on Aug. 31 he had gone on a spree and visited a young woman of doubtful reputation at a house in West Thirty-first street.

gone on a spree and visited a roung woman of doubtful reputation at a house in West Thirty-first street.

William H. Geer is at present in Sing Sing. Both of his wives were in court in the suit of Mrs. Annie M. Geer. She said that she married him in 1858, and that he left her in 1854. She has not seen him since 1856. Mrs. Barbara Geer, whom he married in 1858, testified that when he asked her to be his wife he said that when he asked her to be his wife he said his litst wile was dead. Both want divorces. James Conway separated from his bride of 1851 in June. 1857. They were married by the Rev. C. H. Hammond in Pittsfield, Mass. When they came to New York he went to live with his employer at 22 Eighth avenue. His wife went to a fat at 109 West Sixtleth street with her sister. The women were known there as Mrs. Roth and Miss Roth. Mrs. Roth said ner husband was a seafaring man who was home only once in two weeks. She went to a business college, and later on was cashier in a grocery store on Ninth avenue. After this the young women had a great many callers, and the anitor's family were called to testify to certain circumstances, including the rushing of the growler by the janitor's boy.

MISS SCHULTZ HAS TO GO HOME.

A row of girls with tears streaming down their cheeks sat on one of the rickety benches in the Long Island City Police Court yesterday Schultz, who was accused by her father of betestifying to the good character of Josephine ing a bad girl and having run away from home three weeks ago. Josephine is a cousin of William Krulisch, the boy who was tried for the murder of Guenther Wechsung, a cierk in Otto Doepiner's drug store, 937 Third avenue, New York, on the morning of March 7 last.

Artifich has been living with his uncle, free-crick Schuitz. Josephines father, in Dutch Kills, since his acquittal last April. He was in court as a winness for his uncle, and acted as interpreter while his uncle and aunt were giv-ing their testimony. Josephine, who is a pretty blonde, sobbed pititully during the examination. Her friends in the court room kept her company. She said she left her parents because they abused her. She had been worning as a servant in the famshe let ther parents because they abused her. She had been worstig as a servant in the family of Mrs. Twaddle of Woodside. Her tather denied that he had abused her. He said he was able to give her a good home, and did not want her to live out. He produced a note addressed to "Bear Peter." which he said had been written by his daughter. Josephine denied that she had written the note.

She said that she was 18 years old, and that she did not want to go home. Her parents testified that she was 17 years o'd. Justice havanagh said she would either have to return home or he would send her to some institution, as she was under age. She decided to go back home and she left the court room on young Krulisch's arm weeping. Her friends all followed, with their handkerchiels to their eyes.

HER MOTHER DIDN'T KNOW OF 12 Miss Springer of Rahway Married by Major Cleveland of Jersey City.

A well-dressed, good-looking couple called at Mayor Cleveland's office in Jersey City yesterday and wanted to be married. The young woman looked as though she had left home in a hurry. The young man's personal appearance betokened careful preparation. They had no witnesses with them. The young man described himself as Joseph F. La Point, 38 years old, a barber, of 24 Main street. Rahway. The young woman said she was Miss Julia Springer of Hazeland avenue, Rahway. She was 20 years old. The Mayor performed the cere-mony. When the bride was asked whether she I will," and she looked as though she meant it.
After the ceremony, while waiting for the certificate to be made out, the bridgeroom said tificate to be made out the bridegroom said laughingly:

Your mother will kill you when you get back home. You'll catch it, I 'ell you,"

"You'll be the one to catch it. She will give it to you," was the reply.

The groom treated the witnesses to cigars and looked very happy.

The couple took the 3:30 train for Rahway.

ARRESTED BY BIS AUNT.

Mr. Barnard Must Now Meet the Charge Proferred by Miss Emery,

Miss Kate Barnard of Brooklyn arrested her nephew on Saturday night and took him to the Adams street police station. His name is Thomas H. Barnard, and he is a shipping clerk in ex-Mayor Grace's office. Young Barnard, as it is alleged, cruelly deceived Miss Beatrice Emery of 371 Bridge street under promise of Emery of 371 Bridge street under promise of marriage, and two months are a warrant was issued for his arrest. It could not be served, as Barnard managed to keep out of the way, and his nont who was much displeased with his conduct toward Miss Emery, resolved to play the part of a detective.

She maily saw him in the street and selzed him. Barnard had a loaded revolver in his pocket when he was arrested, and for this he was fined $5 by Justice Walsh. He was also pinced under $500 bonds in the case of hiss Emery.

The Retail Furniture Houses Not All Up

Residents in the upper part of the city are apt to think that the most advantegeous centrs for shopping is located between Fourteenth and Twenty-third streets, Sixth avenue and Broadway, and its this section of New York, perhaps, that the greatest amount of money changes hands, particularly in the retail of dry goods, fancy goods, and notions. In fur-niture, asso, representative establishments are located niture, asso, representative establishments are located in close proximity on the leading thoroughtaream this part of town, and offer many and varies astractions. It is a mistake, however, to suppose that in the line of goods all the best assertiments at the most reasonable prices can be had up town and this idea can be disproved at once by paying a visit to the large furniture establishment of Jordan A Mariarty, 277 to 238 Fark row. This big place occupies half a block, and the visitor is both surprised and gratined with the immense stock of useful and ornamental goods on hand, and with the extremely low prices which prevail. In business for more than half a century this firm emphasizes the fact that their long and successful career is due to far and square destine, which has secured to them a large citetake of steading with the surprised of the states of stead as the result of the states of the st

on the following wonderful terms:

A first payment of FIFTY CENTS will secure any lo that may be selected. Future payments can be made at the rate of only 50 cents a week, or $2 a month, until all payments are completed, and, on top of such an offer, the lots will be sold at prices never before dreamed of in connection with New York and Brooklyn suburban property.

FORTY DOLLARS WILL BUY A LOT.

Payable 50 Cents a Week, OTHER LOTS AT $50, $60, $70, AND $75, and 50 cents a week will pay for them. No interest on deferred payments, no note, no mortgage, no taxes, no assessment, no anything but a flat payment of 50 cents

CAN ANY ONE AFFORD TO MISS IT?

The property is beautifully situated, adjoining the village of Hempstead, L. I. within convenient suburban distance of Brooklyn and New York. Already more than five hundred lots have been sold in this addition. which will be improved during the coming spring and summer: title is perfect and preperty is rapidly advancing in value. This extraordinary offer is made solely for the purpose of closing business. Plats of the properly can be seen at my office, where each purchaser can select his or her lots and secure their purchase absolutely by making a first payment of only 50 cents. Yes, 50 cents! not $5, but 50 cents-there is no mistak in the figures. Fifty cents secures any lot that is offered. Come early, before the lots are all taken. This is an opportunity you will never be able to duplicate. Remember, only 50 cents secures you a home. No mortmember, only on the set.
